

NOTICE OF CIVIL CLAIM

STATE OF KANSAS

Plaintiff:

Shawn Shariar Emran and Md. Afzal Hossain
7 Ungava Bay Rd.
Brampton, ON Canada
L6R 3M6

The plaintiff(s) Shawn Shariar Emran is MSc student at the University of Kansas. Md. Afzal Hossain is Managing Director of Ruposi Bangla Airlines Ltd. based in Dhaka, Bangladesh. The plaintiff(s) are Bangladeshi-Canadian by nationality. The plaintiff(s) have no assets registered in the State of Kansas.

Defendant:

Royal Ridge Apartments
7300 State Ave
Kansas City, KS
66112

Allegation of Defamation by Royal Ridge Apartments:

The Defendant defamed the Plaintiff(s) by executing eviction from Apartment 721 while simultaneously collecting rents. As a result of the defamation against the plaintiff(s), Shawn Shariar Emran was not able to secure rental at subsequent apartment(s) and was not able to complete his education in the United States of America. As such the Plaintiff is requesting the costs of all flights, moving expenses, and tuition. The court may go as far as to award reversal of the rents collected since eviction.

Shawn Shariar Emran will also be guaranteed reversal of the eviction on the merit of payment of rents in full- from his record in the State of Kansas.

As per Md. Afzal Hossain, he now has an eviction record under his name in the United States of America which may cost him if he ever plans on doing business in the United States of America. Md. Afzal Hossain seeks damages to reputation and reversal of the eviction record.

Consequence:

Non-pecuniary damage of not completing his education in the United States of America and the loss of income due to delay in studies.

Pecuniary damage of rents collected since eviction, flights costs, moving expenses, and tuition.

Non-pecuniary damage arises as result of the defamation against the plaintiff(s).

Pecuniary damage is the loss of the money spent in the Kansas endeavor.
